

Gas Heating Service I

The Gas Heating Service I class is a basic & fundamental course. Students in this class are trained in; basic electricity, electrical symbols, electrical meters, furnace types, different fuels & their characteristics, furnace controls & components. Heavy emphasis is placed on reading pictorial & schematic wiring diagrams, different types of ignition systems, testing heating exchangers and blower motors. Two exams are administered, a mid-term and a final exam.